VOLLEYBALL: State Tournament Results

Good job everyone!

A hard fought weekend for the Wildcats in Rockford at the Special Olympics Illinois State Volleyball tournament. It was a competitive weekend for all the teams and many athletes accomplished goals they had been working on all season. Final results were: Wildcats 1 finished 3rd, Wildcats 2 finished 3rd and Wildcats 3 finished 4th.

FY20-21 ANNUAL REPORT: Online Now

Last year was all about opening hearts!

The year tested our ability to serve our communities with ever-changing restrictions, close contact protocols, school program uncertainty and other shifting dynamics. Though it all, we adapted, connect and lead as never before. Our mission remained clear – to provide the very best special recreation services for our communities and their families.

$12,500 MATCH OPPORTUNITY: Help Us Meet the Match!

11/1 thru 11/30 ONLY!

Thanks to the Coleman Foundation, if you make a gift of $225 or more before 11/30/21 they will donate an additional $225. Upto $12,500!

Simply by making a donation, YOU become a life-changing partner. YOU can send a child with autism to camp this summer. YOU can give an athlete with Down syndrome the equipment needed to experience the camaraderie of being a part of a team. YOU can make sure an adult with cerebral palsy can spend their days engaged at Rec & Roll, instead of at home with nothing to do, because they will have the one-on-one assistance they need in order to attend.

Please give today! Ask friends and family to give too!

Donations can be easily made online at www.wdsra.com.

SHOPPING: Make Your Cart Work Harder During the Holidays

You shop. They donate. It's that simple!

When doing your holiday shopping (or any shopping), be sure to log onto smile.amazon.com, select WDSRA as your charity of choice, then shop! For every qualified purchase you make, they donate a portion back to WDSRA. Thank you!
